CONSIDERATIONS

• The patient’s pain and need for analgesia.

• If progression is still not possible, reposition the patient in bed.

• Transfer for toileting and sitting out of bed may be possible using an appropriate mechanical device.

• Referral to physiotherapy and pressure relieving devices – seek advice.

These steps should not replace your own clinical reasoning or judgement.