

Metronidazole Kabi

Light stability ¹

Metronidazole Kabi solution for infusion in glass bottles has undergone photostability testing according to the ICH Q1B guidelines. The results were within specification and show therefore that the drug product is not sensitive to light.

Consequently, also Metronidazole Kabi solution for infusion in Kabipac is not sensitive to light. Kabipac container, is due to its chemical-physical properties, less light transmissive than glass bottles.

Reference

1. Fresenius Kabi Austria GmbH. Metronidazole Kabi Data on File

"Whilst every effort has been made to ensure the information presented is accurate and current at time of writing, the authors do not make any warranties, express or implied, or assume any liability or responsibility for the accuracy, completeness or use of any information or guidelines herein."

Fresenius Kabi Australia Pty Limited

Level 2, 2 Woodland Way, Mount Kuring-Gai NSW 2080
Phone 1300 732 001; Fax 02 9391 5505